Searching at Federal Courts:

District Courts indexed by defendant, plaintiff, and by case number. Bankruptcy Courts usually index by debtor and case number. Most case files created prior to 1999 were maintained in paper format only. Since 2006, all cases are filed electronically. Paper case files may be stored at the courthouse or forwarded to a designated Federal Records Center (see <http://archives.gov/frc>), the timeframe determined by the Court. These case files may be obtained via the Court or directly from the FRC.

Case data may be viewed PACER, the online public access program. An account is required, the fee is $.10 per page; there is no fee if a usage does not exceed $15.00 in a quarter. For details about PACER see the Appendix or go to <https://www.pacer.gov> or call 800-676-6856.

The copy fee is $.50; $.10 if electronic document is printed from terminal. Certification fee is $11.00 per document and $21.00 for exemplification, if available. If a case is still available from the individual federal court, the search fee is $30.00. If the case is at the Archives, the case can be ordered from the court. The fee to retrieve a paper file is $64.00 for the first box and $39.00 ea add'l box. Also, the public can order copies direct online from the National Archives. Copies can be delivered by mail, fax, or email. See more information at www.archives.gov/research/court-records/55.

The Supreme and Appellate Courts

The Supreme Court reviews decisions of the Circuit Courts, the Court of Appeals when such appeals have been allowed, decisions from the State Corporation Commission, and certain disciplinary actions of the Virginia State Bar regarding attorneys. Virginia's intermediate appellate court, the Court of Appeals, reviews decisions of the Circuit Courts in domestic relations matters, traffic infractions and criminal cases (except death penalty cases), appeals from administrative agencies, and decisions of the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission. Opinions are available from the home page.

Details on the Court Structure

The Circuit Court handles felonies, all civil cases with claims of more than $25,000 but it shares authority with the General District court to hear matters involving claims between $4,500 and $25,000. The Circuit Court also handles family matters including divorce. There is a Circuit Court in each city and county in Virginia.

The General District Court decides all offenses involving ordinances laws, and by-laws of the county or city where it is located and all misdemeanors under state law, and small claims ($4,500 or less). A misdemeanor is any charge that carries a penalty of no more than one year in jail or a fine of up to $2,500, or both. Please note that a District can comprise a county or a city.

As stated, records of civil action from $4,500 to $25,000 can be at either the Circuit Court or District Court as either can have jurisdiction. Thus it is necessary to check both record locations as there is no concurrent database or index.

Fifteen independent cities share the Clerk of Circuit Court with the county, but have separate District Courts: Bedford, Covington (Alleghany County), Emporia (Greenville County), Fairfax, Falls Church (Arlington or Fairfax County), Franklin (Southampton County), Galax (Carroll County), Harrisonburg (Rockingham County), Lexington (Rockbridge County), Manassas and Manassas Park (Prince William County), Norton (Wise County), Poquoson (York County), South Boston (Halifax County), and Williamsburg (James City County).

Magistrate Offices issue various types of processes such as arrest warrants, summonses, bonds, search warrants, subpoenas, and certain civil warrants. Magistrates may also conduct bail hearings.

Record Searching Facts You Need to Know

In most Circuit Courts the certification fee is $2.00 per document plus copy fee which is usually $.50 per page. The General District Court fees are more varied by location.

Charles City and James City are counties, not cities. The City of Franklin is not in Franklin County, but is its own separate jurisdiction. The City of Richmond is not in Richmond County, but is its own separate jurisdiction. The City of Roanoke is not in Roanoke County, but is its own separate jurisdiction.

There are actually several systems available, but the key piece of information is that each court type and each county or county equivalent must be searched separately.
